

Indian Classical Carnatic Vocal Concert By Dr. Pantula Rama

Dr. Pantula Rama was born into a family with a rich music background. Her father, Pantula Gopala Rao, is a violist and her mother, Pantula Padmavathi, is a veena artiste. Pantula Rama holds a Ph.D. in music from Andhra University. Her initial vocal training was given by her father and advanced training under Sangeeta Kalasagara Ivaturi Vijayeswara Rao. Pantula Rama has been performing since she was eight. She has given numerous concerts in several countries. Her technical perfection conforms to the best classical standards. She won many awards and accolades including Best Musician from the Government of Andhra Pradesh (1998) and Isai Peroli from Kartik Fine Arts, Chennai (2011).

Accompanied By:

Sri M.S.N. Murthy

Sri Tanjor K. Murugaboopathi

When: Saturday, October 27, 2012, 7:00 p.m.

Where: Pima Medical Society Hall,
5199 E Farness Dr., Tucson, AZ

Tickets: $20 per person; $35 per family; children free.
Please RSVP. Pay at the door.
All profits go to the Community Food Bank.

Information: Contact Sumhith at (520) 299-5666, sumhith@ragazona.org.

Brought to you by Ragazona.

Ragazona is a non-profit organization promoting music and charity.

www.ragazona.org

Ragazona: Reaching out Through Ragas